

Other Resources

Several major collections of source information dealing with planning and particularly cores and downtowns are available on the Internet.

- Nancy Lynn Kleban at the University of Hawaii as a graduate student project: <http://www2.hawaii.edu/~kleban/Revitalization.htm>. No information is available about whether the information on this site is being maintained and updated.
- Louisiana State University: <http://www.lib.lsu.edu/weblilo.html>.
- University of Buffalo (NY) Planning Department: <http://www.cyburbia.org/>.
- Cornell University (John W. Reps) urban planning history 1794-1918: <http://www.library.cornell.edu/Reps/DOCS/pagetwo.htm>.
- UC Berkeley Environmental Design Library: <http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/ENVI/basplan.html>.
- SUNY University at Albany planning and urbanism topics: <http://library.albany.edu/subject/guides/planningguide.html>.

Rodney E. Engelen
<http://www.mixedusecores.com/>
Version 1.0